IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

NOTICE OF MOTION NO.2349 OF 2000
IN
SUIT NO.2133 OF 1993

Sadanand A. Shetty Plaintiff

versus

Mrs.Sharda Shetty and others Defendants

None present.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.
DATE : 10th June 2005

PC :

1. None present for plaintiff. Notice of Motion seeks variation of an interlocutory order passed in Suit on 6th July 1993 and 20th July 1993. The affidavit-in-support of notice of motion does not disclose any facts necessitating variation of order and/or increasing the quantum of Rs.10,000/-. No ad-interim order also has been granted in this notion of motion. Reserving liberty to the plaintiff to take out appropriate proceedings in case he still feels that the quantum fixed under the order passed by this Court is insufficient, present notice of motion is disposed off. Needless to state that disposal of present notice of motion would not constitute a bar in either the plaintiff applying for variation and/or modification of this order or the Court considering the same on the basis of additional and sufficient materials. No order as to costs.
